THE INTERLAKEN INN ANNOUNCES THE "UNDER THE COVERED BRIDGE" FLY-FISHING LEISURE PACKAGE

LITCHFIELD COUNTY (LAKEVILLE), CT, May 2005 ... The Interlaken Inn Resort has announced a new summer & fall leisure package for everyone who's been harboring a desire to reel in a prize-winning trout & bass or to savor the serenity of fly-fishing. Called the "Under the Covered Bridge Fly-fishing" package, guests will receive expert, individualized and detailed information from an expert guide attending to no more than three anglers at a time. Fly-fishing takes place on the picturesque Housatonic River under or near the historic covered bridge in West Cornwell, Connecticut. The package is ideal for all skill levels, whether first timers or seasoned veterans.

The expert guides are intimate with the river's hatches and water flows, with full knowledge of where to find the best fishing possible given current conditions. Anglers can choose to wade or float via drift boat, which is a comfortable raft equipped with swivel-mounted seats fore and aft (a great way to fish areas of the river that are otherwise inaccessible). All the equipment, flies and a gourmet lunch are included.

The height of the fly-fishing season on the Houstonic River begins in May and runs through October. Trout can range in size from ten inches to twenty inches with the bulk of the catch from twelve to fourteen inches. During the summer months small mouth bass fishing is excellent and generous catches are not uncommon.

The "Under the Covered Bridge" package includes deluxe accommodations for two nights, a hearty New England breakfast, gourmet lunch "to go" each day, and a half-day of "drift boat" guided fishing. The package is from $379 per person per night midweek (double occupancy), plus tax and service charge. Weekend rates vary depending on the month and guests are encouraged to call for current weekend package rates.

The Interlaken also offers full and half day fishing trips as well as shorter evening fishing excursions on the Housatonic River, Farmington River, and several smaller streams in the region.

For more information on the “Under the Covered Bridge” Fly-fishing package or to make reservations, contact The Interlaken Inn at 860-435-9878, 800-222 2909 or visit www.interlakeninn.com.
